Hospitals Open at Night and on Holidays (Night Emergency Clinic and On-Call Doctors)

＜夜と休みの日に空いている病院(夜間救急室と休日救急当番医があります)＞

Please use this if you need to go to the hospital at night or on holidays immediately.

If you are not in a hurry, please visit the hospital you usually go to.

● Night Emergency Clinic

Please use this when you develop a fever, or some other issue, late at night and want to go to the hospital quickly.

Please be aware that no interpreters are available. Nurses and other staff will translate the conversation using a software on a tablet.

Available Hours: Daily from 20:00 - 7:00 the following morning

※ They are also open on Saturdays from 14:00 - 18:00.

However, from December 28th through January 3rd, as well as on any Saturdays that fall on holidays, the clinic will be closed from 14:00 - 18:00.

Venue: Hamamatsu Medical Association Building, first floor (311-2 Tenma-cho, Chūō-ku)

Inquiries: Night Emergency Clinic 455-0099

Life-Saving Emergency Response System

＜命を守るために出動体制＞

There are seven fire stations and eighteen branch offices (hereinafter referred to as fire stations) within Hamamatsu City. When you call 119 from within the city, the call connects to the Fire Department Command Center at the Fire and Disaster Management Bureau (Shimoikegawa-cho, Chuo Ward), and the ambulance that can arrive at the scene the fastest is dispatched.

● When You Call 119, You Will Hear These Types of Questions in Japanese

“Is this a fire or a medical emergency?”

“Please give me your address.” **※

“Who is involved and what happened?”

“Please tell me your name and phone number.”

※For landline calls, we can instantly pinpoint your location. For mobile phone calls, location data may be inaccurate, so please provide your address or nearby landmarks, such as buildings, bus stops, bridges, or utility pole numbers.
