Updates to National Health Insurance Eligibility Certificates from August

< 8月の国民健康保険資格確認書などの更新 >

National Health Insurance Eligibility Certificates
※ People who have not registered their My Number Card as their health insurance certificate	Eligibility certificate Olive green → (New) cream and new card style
People who have registered their My Number Card as their health insurance certificate	Notification of eligibility information; A4 size plain paper
Sending Method	Mailed to head of the household by the end of July

People who do not have a My Number Health Insurance Eligibility Certificate will receive an eligibility certificate, while those who do will receive a notification of eligibility information.

However, for the Notification of Eligibility Information, as a general rule, there will be no expiration date or information on the percentage of costs to be borne for people under the age of 70, and if there are no changes or updates to the information already provided, no new notification will be issued.

※ My Number Card registered for use as a health insurance certificate

National Health Insurance Ceiling-Amount Application Certificate

Those aged 69 or younger

Those who wish to continue using their certificate must complete the renewal process.

Please contact the national health insurance team of your respective ward.

※ Certificates applied for by the end of August are valid from August 1.

Those aged 70 to 74

1) Households with individuals aged 70~74 enrolled in the National Health Insurance system and have a taxable income between ¥1.45 million and ¥6.9 million.

2) Members of households where all members are exempt from municipal tax.

A notice will be sent to individuals who meet either of the above conditions by late July. Those who believe they are eligible but have not received a notice by the end of July should contact the national health insurance team of their respective ward.
